

State Welfare Organization as one of the main and influential institutions in the field of social welfare and the custodian of social health promotion is the source of valuable professional services to various groups in society. State Welfare Organization according to paragraph 4 of Article 26 of the Act on the government's financial regulations, after obtaining an activity license, will assign a set of its services in the context of information technology due to better live the members of the society called Welfare Services Center (Positive Life) to the non-governmental sector.

Objectives of establishing positive life centers

The main purpose of these centers is providing desirable services and facilitating the access of target groups to the services of the organization, but other goals of these centers can be to increase public awareness of the duties, activities and services of the welfare organization, Reduction of unnecessary traffic to welfare centers and departments, expansion and comprehensiveness of organizational services, fair distribution of organizational services, creating transparency in the process of providing organizational services, providing a set of organizational services in a center, strengthening family-centered and community-based approach in providing organizational services, expanding the approach of providing services actively, optimal management of resources and increasing productivity, increasing people's satisfaction with the organization's services, increasing the participation capacity of the non-governmental sector and reducing government ownership, improving the quality and quantity of services, providing the possibility of electronic services as well as Improving, modifying and eliminating parallel processes, the possibility of designing new programs to meet the day-to-day needs of the target community, reducing the cost of providing services, facilitating feedback from service delivery, accelerating the expansion of standard service delivery programs through the network of centers.

What are the services and activities in the positive life centers?

- ١) Registration of child adoption application and Initial file formation ,doing Initial interview and registering the request / filing the case and answering to the clients
- ٢) Visiting the house of target communities
- ٣) Analyzing, identifying and determining the priorities of the client's needs and offering a support program proposal
- ٤) Referral of requests of the target community, including financial (continuous / non-continuous) and letter of introduction
- ٥) Pursuing household social working affairs
- ٦) Referral to higher level centers and other devices
- ٧) Local needs assessment
- ٨) Identifying local volunteers, donors and trustees and seeking support
- ٩) Identifying, reviewing and analyzing the social situation of the neighborhood
- ١٠) Facilitate and form a neighborhood / CBO team and community-based actions
- ١١) Actively identification of the target community
- ١٢) Providing trainings for forming and strengthening the family
- ١٣) Life skills training and prevention of social harms
- ١٤) Social awareness to prevent disabilities

- ١٥) Screening for disability prevention, referral and follow-up, including: screening for vision, hearing, genetic disorders, autism, etc.
- ١٦) Carrying out the necessary inquiries and follow-ups for: issuing and renewing the agreement in principle, establishment license, activity license, license of the technical manager of non-governmental centers and institutions mentioned in the thirteen paragraphs of Article ٢٦ of the law regulating part of government financial regulations.
- ١٧) Informing and introducing the services of the organization
- ١٨) Cooperating in the implementation of new plans and programs of the organization
- ١٩) Attracting public participation, both in cash and non-cash